FROM OUR PARISHIONER BILLY SIMS

celebrate Pentecost, marking fifty days after Easter and the glorious descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles. This pivotal event, recounted in the Acts of the Apostles, transformed a fearful band of disciples into courageous evangelists, and empowered them to proclaim the Good News to all nations.

But the outpouring of the Holy Spirit wasn't a onetime occurrence confined to the Apostles. The same Spirit that ignited the early Church continues to dwell within us, the Body of Christ, today. Through Baptism and Confirmation, we receive the very same Holy Spirit, who enriches our lives with His seven gifts: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord.

These gifts are not merely passive blessings; they are active graces that empower us to live out our Catholic faith more fully. The Spirit guides our consciences, strengthens us in times of trial, deepens our understanding of God's word, and inspires us to acts of charity and justice. He unites us as one Church, fostering communion and empowering us to share Christ's love with the world. Let us pray for a renewed outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our hearts, that we may be ever more faithful witnesses to His transformative power!

Este fin de semana celebramos Pentecostés, marcando cincuenta días después de la Pascua y el glorioso descenso del Espíritu Santo sobre los Apóstoles. Este acontecimiento crucial, relatado en los Hechos de los Apóstoles, transformó a un grupo de discípulos temerosos en valientes evangelistas, y les dio poder para proclamar las Buenas Nuevas a todas las naciones.

Pero el derramamiento del Espíritu Santo no fue un hecho aislado de los apóstoles. El mismo Espíritu que encendió a la Iglesia primitiva continúa morando dentro de nosotros, el Cuerpo de Cristo, hoy. A través del Bautismo y la Confirmación, recibimos el mismo Espíritu Santo, que enriquece nuestras vidas con sus siete dones: sabiduría, entendimiento, consejo, fortaleza, conocimiento, piedad y temor del Señor.

Estos dones no son meramente bendiciones pasivas; son gracias activas que nos capacitan para vivir nuestra fe católica más plenamente. El Espíritu guía nuestras conciencias, nos fortalece en tiempos de prueba, profundiza nuestra comprensión de la palabra de Dios y nos inspira a realizar actos de caridad y justicia. Él nos une como una sola Iglesia, fomentando la comunión y empoderándonos para compartir el amor de Cristo con el mundo. Oremos por una renovada efusión del Espíritu Santo en nuestros corazones, para que seamos testigos cada vez más fieles de su poder transformador.

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR CONFIRMANTS Who are being confirmed By Bishop John This Saturday!

This Sunday after the 10:15 AM Mass, all are invited to our NEWCOMERS' BRUNCH and our PARISH VOLUN-TEER FAIR.

Food will be served first and we will honor all of our parishioners!.

If you are new to the parish, please contact Marchetta at the office (or at the brunch) to give her the information needed to register.

After everyone has a chance to eat the delicious brunch provided by St. Mildred's Social Committee, please stop by the tables set up by various committees and positions within the parish where YOU can volunteer. There are so many areas available! Everything from teaching CCD, helping in Vacation Bible School, helping with our youth ministry in many ways; perhaps being a Lector, Usher, Eucharistic Minister, or Server.

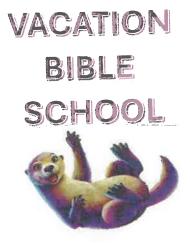

Maybe you would like to volunteer in the church office, answering phones or assisting Marchetta in many other ways.

Maybe you could spare some time to help Mary Guffey in the Outreach Center by answering phones, filing, etc. Another great ministry that needs more volunteers is our Clothing Center.

Each area of our church will have a table set up and will give an explanation of their ministry, etc.

ALL ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THIS EVENT!
